CONSTITUTION

1.0 OBJECTS

The object of the Friends of Brindle St Joseph's Primary School (PTFA) is to advance the education of pupils in the school in particular by:

1.1 Developing effective relationships between the staff, parents and others associated with the school.

1.2 Engaging in activities or providing facilities or equipment which support the school and advance the education of the pupils.

2.0 POWERS

The committee members have the following powers, which may be exercised only in promoting objects:

2.1 To provide advice

2.2 To publish or distribute information

2.3 To co-operate with other bodies

2.4 To raise funds (but not be means of permanent trading)

2.5 To acquire or hire property of any kind

2.6 To set aside funds for special purposes or as reserves against future expenditure.

2.7 To deposit or invest funds in any lawful manner (but to invest only after obtaining advice from a financial expert and having regard to the suitability of investments and the need for diversification).

2.8 To take out public liability and personal accident insurance to cover association meetings, activities, committee members, to insure the association property against any foreseeable risk and take out other insurance policies to protect the association where required.

2.9 To employ paid or unpaid agents, staff or advisers

2.10 To obtain and pay for goods and services as are necessary for carrying out the work of the charity

2.11 To consult parents on their views

2.12 To open and operate bank and other accounts as the committee members consider necessary

2.13 To do anything else within the law that promotes the objects but the committee shall not undertake any activity in the school premises without the consent of the Head Teacher.

3.0 MEMBERSHIP

Members of the association are:-

3.1 In a Parent, Teachers and Friends Association, the parents, guardians or carers of any pupil currently attending the school plus teaching, non-teaching staff currently employed by the school and any person over the age of 18 wishing to offer appropriate support or help to the school and who is accepted by the committee as a member.

3.2 Membership is terminated if:-

3.2.1 The member dies

3.2.2 The member resigns by written notice to the association

3.2.3 The committee members may for good reason, regardless of whether or not this is at the request of the Governing Body or Head Teacher, exclude any person from membership or from attending an event whose presence at or support of the school is deemed a danger to the school or its pupils or staff or might bring the Association into disrepute. Removal is not effective until the member concerned has been notified in writing of the proposal and his/her right to respond within 14 clear days, and the matter has been considered in light of any representations made.

4.0 GENERAL MEETINGS (ANNUAL AND EXTRAORDINARY)

4.1 All members are entitled to attend any general meeting of the association

4.2 All general meetings are called by giving 21 clear days written notice of the meeting to the members. The notice should specify the date, time and location of the general meeting as well as give an overview of the agenda.

4.3 There is a quorum at a general meeting when the number of members present is at least twice the number of committee members in office at the start of the meeting. The only exception would be at a general meeting where the association is being dissolved: please see clause 12.

4.4 The Chair or (if the Chair is unable or unwilling to do so) some other committee member elected by those present is in charge of a general meeting.

4.5 Except where otherwise provided in this Constitution, every issue at a general meeting is decided by a simple majority of the votes cast by the members present at the meeting.

4.6 Except for the Chair of the meeting, who has a second or casting vote, where a vote is equally divided (tied), every member present is entitled to one vote on every issue.

4.7 The association must hold a general meeting within twelve months of the date of the adoption of the constitution. Thereafter an AGM must be held in each subsequent year and not more than 15 months may elapse between successive annual general meetings.

4.8 At an AGM the Members:-

4.8.1 Receive the accounts of the association for the previous financial year.

4.8.2 Receive the report of the committee members on the association's activities since the previous AGM.

4.8.3 Elect the committee members

4.8.4 Appoint an independent examiner or auditor for the association

4.8.5 May confer on any individual (with his or her consent) the honorary title of Patron, President or Vice-President of the Association.

4.8.6 Discuss and determine any issues of policy or deal with any other business put before them.

4.9 An EGM may be called at any time by the committee and must be called within 21 days to happen within three months of a written request to the receiving Committee Members from at least ten members.

5.0 THE COMMITTEE

5.1 The members of the committee have control of the association, its property and funds. The committee members are referred to in this document as committee members.

5.1.1 Committee members shall be elected at the AGM and shall hold office until the next AGM.

5.1.2 All committee members, except those who are co-opted, must be members of the association.

5.1.3 Committee members shall have the power to co-opt committee members at any time, and co-opted committee members shall serve until the date of the next AGM.

5.1.4 The number of co-opted committee members must not be more than 50% of the total number of committee members.

5.2 Nominations for election to the committee may be made by any member of the association and seconded by another.

5.3 Such nominations must have the consent of the nominee. Nominations should be made in writing to the Chair at any time until the election process has been completed. If no nominations or an insufficient number are received before the AGM, and Members present may nominate a person with their consent and that person may be appointed by a majority vote of those present.

5.4 A committee member (where elected or co-opted) automatically ceases to be a committee member if he or she:

5.4.1 Is disqualified under Section 178 of the Charities Act 2011 or any substantial re-enactment from acting as a charity trustee.

5.4.2 Is incapable, whether mentally or physically, of managing his or her own affairs

5.4.3 Is absent from three consecutive meetings of the committee without prior notification to the Secretary.

5.4.4 Ceases to be a member of the association

5.4.5 Resigns by written notice to the committee but only if at least two committee members remain in office.

5.4.6 Is removed by a resolution passed by a majority of other committee members. Removal is not effective until the member concerned has been notified in writing of the proposal and his/her right to respond within 14 clear days, and the matter has been considered in light of any representations made.

5.5 All Committee Members shall be entitled to reimbursement of reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including hotel and travel costs) actually incurred in the administration of the Association.

5.6 A technical defect in the appointment of a committee member of which the committee are unaware at the time does not invalidate decisions taken at a meeting.

6.0 COMMITTEE MEETINGS

6.1 The committee must hold at least three meetings every academic year.

6.2 A quorum at a committee meeting is 50 percent, rounded up to the nearest whole number, of the total current membership of the committee.

6.3 The Chair or, if the Chair is unable or unwilling to do so, some other committee member chosen by the members present is in charge at each committee meeting.

6.4 Every decision may be made by a simple majority of the votes cast at a committee meeting. A resolution which is in writing and signed by all committee members is equally valid. The resolution may be contained in more than one document and will be treated as passed on the date of the last signature.

6.5 Except for the Chair of the meeting which has a second or casting vote, every committee member has one vote on each issue.

7.0 POWERS OF COMMITTEE

The following powers are available to the committee to help run the association:-

7.1 To delegate any functions of the committee to sub-committees. These must consist of two or more persons appointed by the committee but at least one member of each sub-committee must be a committee member. All sub-committee proceedings must be promptly reported to the main committee.

7.2 To make rules consistent with this constitution about the committee and sub-committees and generally about the running of the association including the operation of bank accounts and the commitment of funds.

8.0 PROPERTY & FUNDS

8.1 The property and funds of the association must only be used to fulfil the objects (see Clause 1).

8.2 Committee members can enter into contracts with the association for the provision of goods and services to the association provided that:-

8.2.1 The maximum amount is set out in writing and is reasonable for the services provided.

8.2.2 The committee members are satisfied that the agreement is in the interest of the organisation before entering into it.

8.2.3 The total number of committee members entitled to such remuneration is in the minority from time to time.

8.3 Whenever a committee member has a personal interest in a matter to be discussed at a meeting, the committee member must:-

8.3.1 Declare an interest before discussion begins on the matter.

8.3.2 Withdraw from that part of the meeting unless expressly invited to remain in order to provide information.

8.3.3 Not be counted in the quorum for that part of the meeting.

8.3.4 Withdraw during the vote and have no vote on the matter.

9.0 RECORDS & ACCOUNTS

9.1 The Committee will produce the following:

9.1.1 Annual reports

9.1.2 Annual statement of account

9.2 The Committee must keep proper records of:-

9.2.1 All proceedings at general meetings

9.2.2 All proceedings at committee meetings

9.2.3 All reports of sub-committees

9.3 Annual reports and statements of account relating to the association must be made available for inspection by any member of the association.

10.0 NOTICES

10.1 Notice of any general meeting of the association may be sent by hand, by post, by suitable electronic communication (email) or in any newsletter distributed by the association to its members. Notifications by hand may include distribution to parents, guardians and carers via their children with or without other communications from the school.

10.2 The address at which a member is entitled to receive notices (if sent by post) is the last known address of the member.

10.3 A technical defect in the giving of notice which the members or committee members are unaware of at the time does not invalidate decisions taken at a general meeting.

11.0 AMENDMENTS

The constitution may be amended at a general meeting of the association by a two-thirds majority of the votes cast, but:-

11.1 The members must be given 21 clear days notice of the proposed amendments.

11.2 No amendment is valid if it would make a fundamental change to the objects / clause 1 of the association.

12.0 DISSOLUTION

12.1 The association may be dissolved by a resolution presented at an EGM or an AGM where this is included in the notice of the meeting. The resolution must have the agreement of two thirds of those voting and must give instructions for the disposal of any assets remaining after paying the outstanding debts and liabilities of the association.

12.2 The net assets shall not be distributed among the members of the association but will be given to the school for the benefit of the pupils of the school. In the event of the school closing any remaining funds could be distributed to a neighbouring school or schools as selected by the committee.

12.3 If it is not possible to dispose of assets as described in clause 12.2 then the assets can be given to another charitable cause provided that the cause is within the objects of the association.
